

Closing Prayer:

O God the Father of all,
you ask every one of us to spread love and reconciliation
where people are divided.
You open this way for us,
so that the wounded body of Jesus Christ, your church,
may be leaven of communion for the poor of the earth
and in the whole human family.

A Reading from the Gospel of John 10: 12-17

“This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one’s life for one’s friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father. You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name. I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Stay with me, remain here with me.
watch and pray, watch and pray.

At this point in the liturgy, you are warmly invited to come up to the cross and offer your own personal prayer in the quiet of your own heart. Feel free to either place your head on the cross or simply place your hand on the cross. You are also invited to leave a candle by the cross to represent your personal prayer intention.

Jesus Remember, when you come into your Kingdom,
Jesus Remember, when you come into your Kingdom.
