

Jesus is Risen

The Empty Tomb

The Women at the Tomb (Mt 28:1-10)

After the Sabbath, as Sunday morning was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to look at the tomb. Suddenly, an angel of the Lord came down from heaven, rolled the stone away, and sat on it. His clothes were white as snow. The angel spoke to the women. 'You must not be afraid,' he said. 'I know you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. He is not here; he has been raised, just as he said ... Go quickly now, and tell his disciples, "He has been raised from death, and now he is going to Galilee ahead of you; there you will see him!"'

So they left the tomb in a hurry, afraid and yet filled with joy, and ran to tell his disciples. Suddenly Jesus met them and said, 'Peace be with you.' They came up to him, took hold of his feet, and worshipped him. 'Do not be afraid,' Jesus said to them. 'Go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee, and there they will see me.'

Let us Pray

We pray for all who are suffering in the world during this time. We pray for all who are working as doctors, nurses, carers and all who look after people in our nursing homes. We pray for our grandparents, for all who are having to stay at home. We pray for each other that we may look to God who is love and that we may reach out to each other in love by thought, by word or by good deeds. May we always have strength from knowing that God is always with us and may we be guided by God's loving care for us all. Amen
